

20th Burlington Scouts 1st Port Nelson Scouts

Scout Canada Mission:

The mission of Scouting is to contribute to the education of young people, through a value system based on the Scout Promise and Law, to help build a better world where people are self-fulfilled as individuals and play a constructive role in society.

Scout Promise:

*On my honour
I promise that I will do my best
To do my duty to God and the Queen,
To help other people at all times,
And to carry out the spirit of the Scout Law.*

Scout Law:

*A Scout is
Helpful and trustworthy,
Kind and cheerful,
Considerate and clean,
Wise in the use of all resources.*

Troop Code of Conduct

In the spirit of the Scout Mission, Promise and Law all Scouts and Leaders will strive to make participation in Scouting with the 20th Burlington and 1st Port Nelson Scouts rewarding and fun for all. To ensure all Scouts have an opportunity to experience and enjoy Scouting to the fullest, all participants must affirm that a certain level of conduct and discipline be maintained.

Outlined below are a few simple rules intended to help maintain Troop order, while respecting the needs and desires of the individual.

1. Every member, regardless of position, has the right to be treated with respect and dignity by their fellow Scouts and adult leaders.
2. Scouts shall at all times conduct themselves in accordance with the intent and spirit of the Scout Law and Promise.
3. Physical confrontations and abusive or foul language will not be tolerated.
4. No Scout has the right to disrupt Troop activities at the expense of other Troop members.

- 5. No Scout will knowingly commit any act that might endanger another individual or cause damage to Troop gear or other public property.

If a Scout violates Troop rules of conduct, and shows no indication of correcting their actions, any one or more of the following consequences may result:

- a) The Scout may be requested not to participate in certain Troop activities.
- b) Parents or guardians may be informed of the inappropriate behaviour and requested to intervene.
- c) Parents or guardians may be telephoned during an activity and asked to take their Scout home.
- d) The Scout, Parents or guardians may be responsible for repair, replacement or compensation for damages.
